SUICIDE THEORY NOW BACKED BY FINDING OF GUN

Barrel of Shot Gun Is Found Near Trunk of Mr. Tully Applegate's Body in Ruins of Home—Part of Coal Oil Store Nearby.

The original theory of officials that Mr. Tully Applegate, whose burned body was found in the ruins of his home near Mt. Gilead Wednesday night, set fire to his home and then shot himself, seems backed by the location of the trunk of his body in the house and the fact that the barrel of his shot gun was found nearby.

Mr. Applegate's body was found in a room adjoining the kitchen of the house and by his side was found the barrel of his shot gun which he had carried away from home late in the afternoon and with which he had fired at his two sons as they passed his buggy in their automobile en route to Mayesville near Orangeburg. One barrel of the gun had been discharged and the other trigger was cocked. The gun was what is known as a "brush gun" and the barrel was very short. It is supposed that he pulled the trigger as he was bending over the mouth of the gun and in this manner took his own life.

Near the place where the part of his body was found there was the remains of a coal oil stove and from the manner in which his body and the part of the house in which his body was found, burned, it is supposed that he saturated the house as well as his clothing with coal oil before he fired the shot which took his life.

NAMES FOUND WRIT-

TEN IN BAPTIST CHURCH

The baptistry of the Christian Church is being torn down and will be placed in another location in the building which is now being improved by interior decorators. When the tank of the baptistry was removed there was seen these names and dates written in lead pencil on the wooden frame.

Florence Mockbee, Ripley, Brown county, Ohio, October 13, 1876, and William Fleming Powers, Mayesville, Ky., October 11, 1876. Who these persons were who forty-three years ago wrote their names some of the people of Mason and Brown counties may know.

The fire department extinguished a fire at the Commerce street dump at noon.

There will be a special display of trimmed hats at my parlors Saturday, 2-11.

WORK ON CITY'S WHITE WAY BEGINS AT ONCE

Material Here For the Erection of Mayesville's New Street Lighting System—Council Committee Holds Meeting Tonight.

Work on Mayesville's new street lighting system will begin immediately. It was announced by the Mayesville Gas Company this afternoon. The metal street poles which have been delayed the work thus far have arrived in the city and have been unloaded while work at selecting the location of the various poles has been under way for several days.

There has been a meeting of the Light Committee of City Council called for this evening at the committee room in the city's section of the Court House when the contractors who have been awarded this contract by the Mayesville Gas Company will discuss the improvement with the councilmen in charge of this work.

The contractors who will erect these poles and wire them expect to put enough experts on the job to rush the thing through to a speedy completion and the new system of lighting will be in use before the winter season arrives.

PRESIDENT IS IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Washington, October 3.—The President is in a "very serious condition," according to reports from the White House today. A period of "absolute rest" has been ordered, following the consultation with Dr. F. X. Dercum, Philadelphia neurologist. The physicians insist, however, that there is "no reason for alarm."

There was no improvement in the President's condition this morning, and Admiral Grayson held another consultation with Rear Admiral Stitt, of the Naval Medical school, and Dr. Sterling Ruffin, Mrs. Wilson's family physician.

BURIAL AT MT. OLIVET

The funeral of Mr. William Curtis, who was killed at the Infantry crossing Thursday morning by a street car, will be held at the home in Eastland this afternoon and burial will be made at his former home, Mt. Olivet, Saturday morning.

NO BAND CONCERT TONIGHT

There will be no concert by the Boys' Band in their band stand in Market street this evening as usual because of the Coburn Minstrel whose band will give a concert in front of the Washington Opera House just before the show.

WHITE SOX TAKE FIRST HOME GAME

WHITE SOX TAKE THE OPENING GAME IN THEIR HOME TOWN BLANKING REDS BY A SCORE 3 TO 0.

In the third game of the World Series, the first to be played in the White Sox's home town, the American League Champions blanked the Cincinnati Reds by a score of 3 to 0.

Excitement was greater in Mayesville this afternoon over the third game of the World Series than over the two previous. This was perhaps because the "bugs" were all in town not having followed the Reds to the Windy City but they were present in person to witness the first two games of the series.

The breath was taken from the Cincinnati rooters when two big runs were marked up for the Chicago White Sox in their half of the second inning and again in the fourth they scored one run.

Moran had selected Fisher to pitch and Ralston caught him while "Kid" Gleason chose Kerr to do the twirling for the Sox and Schalk was again behind the bat.

When the Reds passed the lucky seventh without scoring the fans about Mayesville lost heart and practically surrendered the game but they hung around the bulletin boards hoping that they might receive some encouraging news before the ninth was reached.

Although the fans held breathlessly on every mark that was made on the score boards they were unable to the airtight pitching of Kerr and the airtight pitching of Kerr and the Reds never scored once.

Moran pulled Fisher in the eighth and put in his place the Cuban pitcher, Luque, but he was unable to have any effect on the Sox.

The score:
Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R H E
Reds 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3 1
Sox 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 7 0

Batteries—Reds: Fisher, Luque and Ralston; Sox: Kerr and Schalk. Umpires: Quigley, Nallin, Evans and Rigler.

FARMERS HOLD MASS MEETING AT COURT HOUSE

Farm Bureau Campaign Will Be Brought to a Climax on Saturday Afternoon With Mass Meeting at Court House—Mr. Bryant Will Speak.

The big mass meeting at the Court House at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon is expected to attract many farmers to Mayesville from all sections of the county.

At this meeting the teams which have been at work throughout the county for the past week in an endeavor to recruit the Mason County Farm Bureau up to a membership of 300 will give their reports and will also tell of some of their experiences during the week. The chief speakers of the afternoon, however, will be Mr. T. R. Bryant, of Lexington, Assistant Director of Extension in the state of Kentucky. Mr. Bryant is a splendid speaker and one of the best friends the farmers of Kentucky have ever had. He has been a very prominent leader in every movement for the betterment of the conditions on the farm and he is quite interested in the Farm Bureau movement which has taken such advanced steps in Mason county within the past few months.

Besides Mr. Bryant, County Agent George Kirk will speak and several others and the workings of the Mason County Farm Bureau will be fully explained and some of the things which the bureau hopes to be able to accomplish will come up for discussion.

The officers of the bureau are hoping that every team member who has been working this week and that every farmer who has signed a pledge card during the week will be present at this first general meeting of the bureau. The general public is also cordially invited to hear Mr. Bryant's address and to attend the meeting.

Remember the meeting will begin promptly at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Mason County Court House.

The concreting between the car rails in West Second street will more than likely be completed by the contractors by this evening but the street will remain blocked until the concrete shall have set perfectly solid. The contractors who have had charge of this work have displayed marked ability and have made rapid progress.

APPEAL IS MADE TO SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFICERS

Attendance Secretary Again Requests All Sunday School Officers to Phone the Attendance of Their Schools Each Sunday Afternoon.

The Sunday School Attendance Secretary wishes to remind Sunday School Superintendents, secretaries and other workers of the importance of telephoning their attendance on Sunday afternoons. This has special reference to the county schools. Only a very few take enough interest in the matter to report their attendance. Whether it is because of indifference or not it would be hard to say. However, as a new quarter begins with next Sunday, and many schools are having their fall rallies, why not all our schools begin the new quarter right by phoning their attendance to 217 Mayesville between the hours of 12:30 and 6 p. m. Don't wait to be called; do the calling yourself. There are a whole lot of folks interested in the welfare of our Sunday Schools. They watch closely the attendance from week to week. They note the progress of the work. Let's show people that Mason county is a real live Sunday school county by building up our schools and let the public know about it.

NEIGHBOR JUDGE INDORSED FDR U. S. DISTRICT COURT

At a special meeting of the Mason County Bar Association recently held Judge James S. Thomas, West Union, O., was unanimously endorsed as a successor to the late Judge Hollister, of the United States District Court, Cincinnati.

The endorsement came unsolicited and a pleasing surprise to Judge Thomas, who was in Jackson, Ohio, holding court.

NEW JUDGE IS HUSBAND OF MAYESVILLE WOMAN

Judge James K. Roberts Appointed Circuit Judge of Twenty-third District Is Husband of Miss Lula Redden, Mayesville Girl.

Hon. James K. Roberts, of Beattyville, Ky., who was appointed this week by Governor Black as Circuit Judge of the twenty-third Judicial District to succeed the late Judge James P. Adams, is well known in Mayesville and a son-in-law of Mrs. Anna Redden, of Second street. His married Miss Lula Redden and has many friends in Mayesville where he frequently visits relatives and friends.

Judge Roberts is a Democrat and Judge Adams was a Republican. The two were opposing candidates for Commonwealth's Attorney several years ago. Roberts was awarded the certificate but Adams was elected Judge.

The new Judge served in the office of Secretary of State Preck Hilt during the Goebel administration. His district embraces Breathitt, Estill and Lee counties.

MAYESVILLE GIRL WEDS IN CINCINNATI

Relatives here have just been advised of the marriage in Covington on Wednesday of Miss Gladys M. Pinckard, of this city and Mr. Henry B. Wayner, of Cincinnati. Miss Pinckard made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Nettie Eckler, of Commerce street, and had many friends here who extend hearty congratulations.

Editor Grote, of the Vanceburg Sun, was in Mayesville today on business and paid the Public Ledger a very pleasant visit.

CAMPAIGN IS TO BE OPENED ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Republican Nominee For School Superintendent Fires First Gun In State Political Campaign For Mason County Saturday Evening.

PROF. GEO. M. COLVIN
Republican Nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

There has been much interest displayed in the opening of the state political campaign in Mason county on next Saturday evening at the county Court House when Prof. George M. Colvin, of Springfield, Ky., the nominee on the Republican ticket for Superintendent of Public Instruction will address an audience.

The announcement that Prof. Colvin will speak here on Saturday night has been spread to all parts of Mason county and a good sized crowd is expected to greet him. Prof. Colvin is no stranger to many people in Mayesville and Mason county. He has been one of the most successful school teachers in the entire state and it develops that there are many citizens of Mason county who came here from the Western part of the state who have been students under this eminent instructor.

SHEEP SALE PLANNED FOR MASON STOCK SALES

October Stock Sales to Be Held at Mason County Stock Yards on Next Monday—Much Stock Expected to Be Offered.

Farmers are now practically thru with their work animals for this season on the farm and as the fall and winter is now almost here and feed is scarce in this district, it is expected that there will be many animals offered for sale at the Mason County Stock Yards on Monday.

The Stock Sales Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has been promised quite a few sheep for sale and the day will be especially a sheep sale day but there will be many horses and mules and some few cattle. It is not expected that there will be much life in the trading ring as the majority of the farmers offering their work animals will want the cash. There will be several horse buyers from a distance here and the price of animals is expected to be good.

Because of the nearing of the fall season and the fact that practically all of the tobacco ready for cutting now is in the barns, it is thought that many farmers will take advantage of the day to come to town and the price of tobacco will probably be the chief topic of discussion. The only thing by which the price of the weed here can be gauged is by the price which is now maintaining on the Southern market and as reports from there show tobacco to be at least 5 cents higher than it was this time last season, the reports are quite encouraging.

Hear Prof. Colvin Saturday Night.

Prof. Colvin is not only a teacher who has more than made good in his chosen profession, he is an orator of much more than ordinary ability. In fact, he is classed as one of the best public speakers in the state and has on more than one occasion been called upon to deliver addresses on important subjects outside of our own Kentucky. Those who have had the pleasure of hearing him speak say that as an orator he is a close second to Edwin P. Morrow, the Republican candidate for governor, who is recognized as the best in Kentucky.

Mr. R. A. Cochran will be chairman of the meeting on Saturday evening and will introduce the speaker. Reports from over the county are to the effect that there will be many delegations from all over the section. The meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock and the public in general is invited and the women especially.

BIG AUDIENCES HEAR MORROW AT WICKLIFFE

Great Crowds Hear Republican Nominee Speak in the First Congressional District.

Wickliffe, Ky., October 2.—Large audiences, composed chiefly of Democrats, greeted Edwin P. Morrow, Republican nominee for governor, at four points in the First Congressional District.

Mr. Morrow was heard here Wednesday night by an audience that filled quite a few sheep for sale and the day will be especially a sheep sale day but there will be many horses and mules and some few cattle. It is not expected that there will be much life in the trading ring as the majority of the farmers offering their work animals will want the cash. There will be several horse buyers from a distance here and the price of animals is expected to be good.

Because of the nearing of the fall season and the fact that practically all of the tobacco ready for cutting now is in the barns, it is thought that many farmers will take advantage of the day to come to town and the price of tobacco will probably be the chief topic of discussion. The only thing by which the price of the weed here can be gauged is by the price which is now maintaining on the Southern market and as reports from there show tobacco to be at least 5 cents higher than it was this time last season, the reports are quite encouraging.

Mr. Morrow's speeches at Milburn were not included in his itinerary, but an audience of 50 had assembled there, and he did not wish to disappoint them.

All four of the counties in which Mr. Morrow spoke Wednesday are overwhelmingly Democratic, however, his audiences received his speeches with demonstrations of great enthusiasm. The splendid reception given Mr. Morrow by Democrats of this district, often called the Gibraltar of the Kentucky Democracy, encourages Mr. Morrow's supporters in this section in a confidential belief that the normal Democratic majority of this district, about 1,000, will be reduced at least one third and possibly one-half.

ONE FARMER GETS 43 BUREAU MEMBERS

One of the most enthusiastic members of the Mason County Farm Bureau, who has been devoting the most of his time this week to enlisting new members to the organization has already signed up 43 men as new members. He says that before the campaign is over there will be many more than 300 members enlisted.

Mr. M. M. Gray, manager of the American Tobacco Company, of Lexington, is spending a few days in Mayesville with relatives and friends.

Hear Prof. Colvin Saturday night.

Did You Ever Need a Plow In a Hurry

Most farmers do, in this complicated modern life. Our grandfathers, if they needed a plow in a hurry, could most always borrow one, but today, Friend Neighbor needs his plow the same time we need ours, so there's nothing left to do, but buy a new one.

Then's when you need the Square Deal Man's superior judgment—for he has had "PLOWs" drilled into his system until he can shut his eyes and find the ver-ry plow you want for your particular needs.

Yours, to prove it's so.

THE HOME OF QUALITY CLOTHES

We Are Sticking to Quality for Dear Life and We Deserve a Part of Your Business

Whenever good merchandise is scarce and hard to find, as it is this Fall, inferior goods and fictitious claims immediately become as plentiful as the Smiths in the phone book, and that's exactly the condition today.

We have sat tight in the boat and kept our quality at full mast. We have refused to accept substitutes for wool—to subtract from our workmanship or to side tract our duty to the clothing buyers of our city, and after considering these facts, you will agree that we deserve a part of your Fall purchases.

THE GERMAN WILDERNESS

The German Premier, addressing the National Assembly on the occasion of ratifying the peace treaty, said:

"We are about to enter upon a forty years' march through a desert."

It was an allusion, of course, to the wanderings of the Children of Israel. It was meant as a lament over the bitter fortune of the German nation. It was part of the general weeping and wailing that have characterized Germany ever since it was foiled in its attempt to crush and dominate the rest of the world.

In reality, it was a happy allusion, far more so than the speaker realized. The Germans have long wanted to regard themselves as a sort of modern Israel—God's chosen people of the new age. They may appear so now in a sense different from anything they contemplated, and yet fortunate.

As the New York World suggests, "the Germans also have escaped from the bondage of cruel taskmasters"—the militarists, who forced them to toil fruitlessly, in slavery to false ideas of grandeur and glory in which the masses could have no part.

The parallel might be carried much farther. The Hebrews were kept forty years in the wilderness to cleanse, purify and strengthen them. It was there that they gained the Law, and learned to forsake their false gods. They were kept wandering until every adult who had come out of Egypt was gone, and there was a wholly new generation, reared with a new discipline and new ideals. Then, and not until then, were the Israelites permitted to enter into the Promised Land.

There may be a Promised Land awaiting the Germans, too, to be enjoyed when the generation which has worshipped the mailed fist has given place to a generation reared, like those wandering Hebrew children, in the fear of God and the quest of that righteousness which exalteth a nation.—Lexington Leader.

POEM WRITTEN BY VETERAN AND READ AT REUNION

"Old Watch" Cooper, of Manchester, Proves Quite a Poet.

The following is the poem read by George W. Cooper at the old Soldiers' Reunion at Beechwood Park last week:

A SOLDIER LETTER
 By George W. Cooper
 Co. G. 10th Ky. Cavalry, U. S. A. (written during a lull in hostilities)
 Camp "Ella Bishop" near Lexington, Ky., January, 1863.

Old Friend:
 If you can spare the time
 To read my poor, unpolished rhyme,
 I'll tell you how our time is spent
 Around and in our spacious tent.

Our mess is quite a jolly crew
 And now have little else to do
 But romp and prank the live long
 And thus we drive the blues away.

Sometime ago our grub was scant
 But now, indeed, we've all we want;
 For while we ate old tainted ham
 It reached the ears of "Uncle Sam".

Forthwith he proved himself our friend;
 And to our wants he did attend
 And, for our welfare every way,
 Established here our commissary.

Included in this bill of fare
 Which he has kindly furnished are
 Old rusty bacon, hardtack, rice
 We've had some butter once or twice
 (when we bought it.)

We sometimes get some nice fresh beef;
 And that, to us, is great relief
 From mess pork, putrid near the bone
 And strong enough to stand alone.

Beans, coffee, sugar, sometimes soft bread
 Are on our rude-built-table spread
 A can of oysters goes quite nice
 But our own pockets pay that price.

John Dodd is indeed a jolly old cook;
 To the welfare of all he is certain to look;
 While old John scatters the plates about,
 Bill Dunham pours the coffee out.

Around the table then we meet,
 Each claiming he the most can eat;
 Beating his elbow upon the pate
 With old tin cup or greasy plate.

When from the table we arise
 With bean soup smeared on face and eyes,
 And mustache daubed with pepper and grease,
 We then enjoy a hearty sneeze.

Our supper over, then at night
 While gathered round the campfire's light,
 'Mid romp and scuffle, laugh and joke,
 We fill our pipes and take a smoke.

And when "Tottoo" the hughes sound,
 In sharp shrill notes the camp around,
 We closely tie our canvass door,
 And take a long eight hours' snore.

We now enjoy a quiet day
 As the rebels seem quite far away;
 And safe from scenes of blood and slaughter
 Major Foley courts a farmer's daughter.

In order to have a change of grub,
 We've organized a "Forage Club",
 And if pigs or sheep get in our range,
 We're sure to have a welcome change.

One moonlit night when all was still
 Sam Hillis strolled across the hill,
 Knocked in the head, a nice fat shoat,
 Then drew his knife and cut its throat.

Sam then declared the vicious pig
 Had hit him badly on the leg,
 He vowed he had a perfect right
 In his own self defense to fight.

With willing hands our aid we lent
 And lugged the porkie to the tent,
 And from this sly and hasty work
 We feasted on nice roasted pork.

But soon again our grub fell short;
 To forage then we must resort,
 Out from the camp where a stream meanders
 Charley Huffman captured two old ganders.

We hung them over a roaring fire
 (And when 'twas needed, we built it higher)
 For eight long hours, which we thought enough
 But Huffman's ganders were still too tough.

THE STOLEN BUCKET
 One fine summer day we were out on grand picket,
 And strolled quite close to a dense, thorny thicket.

Near by in a field in the cool of the morn
 An old nigger farmer was plowing his corn.

The old chap had carried his grub in a bucket
 And in a fence corner we all saw him tuck it.
 Then long Powell Himes, the blue-coated snorer,
 Determined to capture that old nigger's dinner.

When he was relieved from his service on picket
 He slowly and slyly crept through the dense thicket;
 After reaching the place it was easy to pluck it
 Then off scampered Powell with the old nigger's bucket.

Though the contents therein were indeed very small,
 Powell swore they were better than no grub at all.
 What the old darkey did for more grub I don't know,
 But near by a picket post he had a poor show.

THE WRITER'S PREDICAMENT
 As a member of the "Forage Band" I felt that I must try my hand;
 So, quietly stealing away from camp,
 I started out on a forage tramp.

With a good carbine and a steady aim
 It wasn't long till I sighted my game;
 And bringing nerve and skill together
 I fired and killed a big fat wether.

While wondering what next to be about,
 Colonel Maltby with field-glass spied me out.
 With haste his horse he then did mount,
 And quickly called me to account.

"What are you doing, you scamp he cried
 Like faultless innocence, I replied
 "Colonel, my arm is sorely smitten,
 By this bad sheep, I'm badly bitten."

He gruffly said, "Sir, none of your fun!
 Can't you whip a sheep without your gun?
 I'm sorry to see you acting so;
 And now to the guardhouse you must go."

"Please don't," I cried with staring eyes;
 "Can't we get up some compromise?"
 He then agreed to quiet keep

If I'd give him a place of sheep.
 My term of service now is short
 And at its close I'll have some sport
 In old Lewis county, there I'll see
 If I can't have a jolly spree.

The love I have for that old place,
 No other ties can e'er erase;
 It dwells within my memory yet;
 Those pretty girls I'll ne'er forget.
 No more, old friend, except to send
 My best regards to every friend;
 'Tis strange how fast the time now goes
 The bugle sounds, and I must close.

Now, by the campfire's flickering flame
 To close my rhyme I'll sign my name,
 "Old Watch", of Company G.,
 Tenth Kentucky, Cav-al-ree.

LITTLE WANDERER SENT HOME

Ashland, Ky. — Kenneth Bray, a barefooted lad, 13 years of age was taken up while wandering about the streets looking for something to eat. He told Capt. John Brunner, the juvenile officer, that he had served a month in jail in Johnson county, charged with setting fire to a haystack. He stated that he had been released and told to "beat it." He said he was innocent of the charge, another boy having sworn falsely against him. Telephone communication with Palmsville developed the fact that young Bray had a brother in Palmsville who is willing to keep and educate him and he was sent back.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Galtner and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harrison of Commerce street leave today for Batavia, Ohio, to visit Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Werner.

COBURN'S MINISTRELS

HERE TO-NIGHT

Old Time Entertainers Who Are Favorites With Maysvillians Come Here Tonight.

Coburn's Famous Minstrels will be the attraction at the Washington Opera House Friday evening. Coburn and his aggregation have always been favorites in Maysville and will be greeted with a full house.

The Wheeling (W. Va.) Register has the following to say of this year's show: "Wheeling folk certainly like minstrel shows, and the better they are the more they appreciate such amusements. There was plenty of appreciation shown by a packed house at the Court last night when J. A. Coburn's entertainers entertained for about three hours."

There were many features on the lengthy program, but one of the many individual entertainers who received long and loud applause was Nate Mulder, a young man from the city of Wheeling, who was present testifying to the divinity of the Son; the Father speaking in an audible voice and the Holy Spirit descending upon him in the form of a dove. It was from these testimonials that John received his knowledge and like a brave true man he gave his testimony that the world might believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and the Saviour of all men.

SIGNS OF DANGER

That Should Be Heeded by Maysville People.

There's a serious danger in neglecting any weakness of the kidneys. The warning that Nature gives should not be overlooked. If trouble by too frequent passage of the kidney secretions; burning or scalding; if the secretions are highly colored and contain sediment when left standing—if you have backache, too, with frequent headaches and dizziness, make up your mind that your kidneys are affected and begin using some reliable kidney remedy. Deaths from kidney disease have increased in the United States alone, 72 per cent. in the last 20 years. The risk is great—you can't afford to delay. Maysville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Can you ask for better proof of merit than the statement of this Maysville resident?

W. H. Lynch, shoemaker, E. Third St., says: "My kidneys were weak and sluggish. At one time the action of my kidneys stopped altogether. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time the action of my kidneys became normal. I kept on taking them and they completely relieved me." (State given January 9, 1912.)

TROUBLE NEVER RETURNED
On November 14, 1912, Mr. Lynch said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney remedy since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. They have permanently cured me." Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mifflin, Buffalo, N. Y.

rey, a local boy; born and reared in South Wheeling, and who has made hundreds of thousands laugh, by his songs and dancing stunts behind the footlights in all sections of the country.

Good entertainers, a group of well known singers, new costumes and the general appearance of the stage made up the splendid performance "Snap Your Fingers", "Alcoholic Blues", "Tackles 'Em Down", "A Good Man is Hard to Find" and "Wonderful Mother of Mine" are a few of the more popular tunes sung, and the audience, in high spirits, humming and swaying with the singers.

Much credit is due to the cleverness of Charley Gano, who is one of the featured end men. Eddie Horgan took a hearty applause with his eccentric dancing. Denton, as the female impersonator, deserved much favorable comment.

The membership and friends of the church will find these evening services profitable. A special series of topic on Christian Fundamentals will be considered.

In as much as I don't care to be burdened with the responsibility of looking after my farm at my time of life I have decided to offer it at Public Sale to the highest bidder on the above date. There is about 63 acres in the farm; situated in Mason County, Kentucky, in the Minerva precinct on the Big Pond Pike 6 miles West of Maysville; in Consolidated School District. This is a well improved small farm, in fact there is few like it in the county. There is a 6-room Frame House, in good condition, stock barn and tobacco barn, with usual outbuildings, all buildings in good repair. Fencing is good, and there is an abundance of water for stock and family use even at this drought period. Possession will be given for seeding this fall and full possession March 1st, 1920. Land will be sold on easy terms. Sale will take place rain or shine on the premises, so be on hand if you want this desirable little farm.

INCREASE IN 1918 DEATH RATE DUE TO INFLUENZA

Tuberculosis and Typhoid on Decline in Kentucky, Says Health Officers.

The death rate in Kentucky during 1918 was 16.4 per 1,000, an increase of 2.8 per 1,000 over any previous year, according to figures given in a bulletin from the office of the State Board of Health which was received by the County Health Department this week.

This increase was due, according to data contained in the bulletin, to the influenza epidemic which appeared in the latter part of September.

Deaths due to influenza numbered 8,669 and from pneumonia 2,987, a total of 12,677 deaths from the two diseases. The combined death rate per 1,000 for the two diseases was 5.3.

The number of deaths resulting from violence during 1918 showed a marked decrease compared to deaths resulting from this source in 1917.

The number of deaths due to tuberculosis in 1918 was 193.5. In 1911, the first year of which a register was kept, deaths due to this disease numbered 225.6. This decrease is regarded as being of major importance in that it proves what can be accomplished in the fight against this disease by concerted and concentrated action on the part of all health agencies.

The typhoid death rate is registering a decline.

The estimated population for the state for the year 1918 is placed at 2,408,547 by the United States Census Bureau. The total number of deaths reported in the state during the year was 39,499.

SQUIRES-BRADY COMPANY

MANCHESTER IS IN SQUABBLE ON BIG BOND ISSUE

Action of Manchester Council to Issue Bond For Light Plant Gets Into the Courts.

The citizens of our neighbor town of Manchester, Ohio, for several weeks have been agitated over the proposition of issuing bonds to repair and enlarge the municipal electric light plant.

On Monday the matter was taken into the common pleas court when J. A. Shriver, prominent citizen and taxpayer of that village, through his attorneys, W. R. Mahaffey and F. A. Shively, filed an injunction suit against the sale of bonds authorized by the village council, and which had been advertised for sale on October 1.

A temporary restraining order was granted Monday by Judge Will P. Stephenson against the sale of the bonds. Mr. Shriver's injunction suit was against The Incorporated Village of Manchester and E. B. Suter, John Bell, J. E. McNeil, Robert Poole, Daniel Grimsley and Samuel Bartholomew, councilmen; G. E. Neal, Mayor and S. N. Greenlee, clerk.

The Village council had, on September 1, passed an ordinance to issue $4,800 in bonds for the purpose of repairing and improving the light plant, setting out in the ordinance that an emergency condition existed and that there were no funds in the village treasury to meet the expense of the contemplated improvement.

In his injunction suit filed Monday, Mr. Shriver claims that no emergency exists and that the light plant is in good repair and sufficient for all the needs of the village and its citizens.

A referendum petition calling for a vote on the bond proposition, and which was filed with the county board of elections, was laid aside by the board because of a legal defect in the form of the petition. The petition contained a sufficient number of names. It is understood that a new referendum petition in correct form is being circulated and signed for filing with the election board.

Reports from Manchester are to the effect that considerable feeling is being aroused between the respective citizens for and against the proposition.
